

Exhibit D1

Mylan's Changed Claim Constructions
No.	Claim Term	Mylan's Construction in its Local Patent Rule 4.2 Disclosures	Mylan's Alternative Construction
1.	"treatment"	Relieving a medical condition	Control [the acute disorder]
2.	"essentially water-free"
3.	"ordered mixture of microparticles of at least one pharmaceutically active agent adhered to the surfaces of carrier particles, said particles being substantially larger than said microparticles and being water soluble,"

Mylan's Changed Claim Constructions
No.	Claim Term	Mylan's Construction in its Local Patent Rule 4.2 Disclosures	Mylan's Alternative Construction
4.	"Ordered 'mixture'"
5.	"microparticles of at least one pharmaceutically active agent."
6.	"adhered to the surfaces"
7.	"substantially larger"

Mylan's Changed Claim Constructions
No.	Claim Term	Mylan's Construction in its Local Patent Rule 4.2 Disclosures	Mylan's Alternative Construction
8.	"bioadhesion and/or mucoadhesion promoting agent"
9.	"effective amount of at least one pharmaceutically active agent in the form of microparticles adhered to the surfaces of carrier particles"	"An amount of active agent effective to treat the acute disorder that is on the surface of the carrier particles."	The amount of active agent sufficient for treatment of an acute disorder is in the form of microparticles adhered to the surfaces of carrier particles

Exhibit D2

Mylan's Changed Claim Constructions of "Essentially Water Free"
Claim Term	Mylan's Preliminary and Responsive Claim Construction (May 25, 2012 and June 8, 2012)	Mylan's "Alternative" Claim Construction Proposed in the context of the Rule 4.2(d) meet-and-confer (June 13, 2012)	Mylan's Construction included in its Draft Joint Claim Construction Statement (June 19, 2012)	Mylan's revised Construction to be included in as-filed Joint Statement (June 26, 2012)
essentially water-free				